LET'S GET BACK TO WORK AT THE 2010 JOB EXPO AND FRANCHISE FAIR!

August 23, 2010 (Greensboro, NC) – Are you looking for a new job, thinking of self-employment, or are you in search of new career development opportunities? The Greensboro Chamber of Commerce is excited to offer these services and more to the public at its 2010 Job Expo and Franchise Fair on Wednesday, September 1 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Four Seasons Town Centre.

"This is most definitely not your average job fair," commented Kathy Elliott, Vice President of Small Business and Entrepreneurship at the Greensboro Chamber of Commerce. "Lots of employers will be accepting resumes and conducting interviews on-site, the HR Group will be reviewing resumes and offering career development strategy, and attendees can even learn more about franchising and home-based business opportunities."

Various employers and franchisors representing a wide range of industries will be exhibiting, including but not limited to American Express, Bank of America, Time Warner Cable, Guilford College, and the Guilford County Sheriff's Office. Both part-time and full-time positions ranging from professional to unskilled work will be offered. Job seekers are encouraged to dress professionally and to bring plenty of resumes.

Seminars will be offered by GTCC throughout the day to help both job seekers and those considering self-employment as an option for getting back to work!

The Greensboro Chamber of Commerce is hosting the Job Expo in partnership with Four Seasons Town Centre, GTCC Jobs Now & Quick Jobs, Triad Careers, The Entrepreneur's Source, and the Guilford Merchants Association.
