Natural Science Center Features Spectacular “Laser Vinyl” OmniSphere Show Friday, July 23 – 7 p.m., 8 p.m. & 9 p.m.

Greensboro, NC – On Friday, July 23, the Natural Science Center of Greensboro will offer special evening showings of “Laser Vinyl”: a spectacular OmniSphere theater experience of laser light and music by Pink Floyd, Van Halen, AC/DC, Kiss and more. Audiences will be entertained by the music of the popular classic rock bands as laser light dances across the 40 foot dome of the OmniSphere. Show times are at 7 p.m., 8 p.m. and 9 p.m. and last approximately 45 minutes.

Pre-sale tickets only - $5.00/person. Tickets are now on sale at the Natural Science Center’s front admission desk or you can call 336-288-3769. Seating is limited, so purchase your tickets ASAP. The recommended age for this special evening show is 12 years and older.

The Natural Science Center is located at 4301 Lawndale Drive in Greensboro, NC and is home of the Animal Discovery Zoological Park (featuring tigers, wallabies, maned wolves, meerkats, lemurs and many other unique animals), as well as the new OmniSphere Theater (North Carolina’s only 40 foot digital dome experience).
